OFFICERS' WARDS, THE QUEEN ALEXANDRA MILITARY HOSPITAL,

Grosvenor Road, London, S.W.

Special arrangements for the treatment of Officers have recently been made in connection with the Queen Alexandra Military Hospital, London.

There is accommodation for 12 officers in separate rooms situated in a block apart from the main building.

All officers of the Regular Army on the active list who are suffering from a disability contracted in and by the performance of military duty are eligible for admission. Officers who are suffering from a disability not contracted in and by the performance of military duty can be admitted on the recommendation of the Principal Medical Officer, at the discretion of the General Officer Commanding the London District.

Officers admitted as above, while in hospital, are liable to a daily rate of stoppage as laid down in the Allowance Regulations. There are no other expenses.

Retired officers are not eligible for admission unless in very exceptional circumstances, and with the special authority of the War Office.

Applications for admission should be addressed to the Officer in charge, Queen Alexandra Military Hospital, Grosvenor Road, London, S.W.
